

Our Favorite Websites

Below are some of the hardest to find but critical links that we have come across. Some of these took hours to track down the best resource. We hope they come in as handy to you as they have to us. If you need any relocation or real estate services in the future, remember, we always put our relationship with our clients ahead of profit. You can be sure we will represent you in the best possible way.

Website	Description
http://www.state.gov	US Department of State Home page
http://www.state.gov/travelandbusiness/	This tab on the US Department of State website contains information on emergency services, how to prepare for a trip, travel tips, and passport and visa information.
http://travel.state.gov/	This home page to the US Department of State website may seem a little overwhelming but has a lot of good information.
http://bajatimes.com/	Since 1978 the Baja Times is one of the most read newspapers by Americans visiting Baja.
http://www.skymed.com/takesyouhome.cfm	Whether a vacation traveler or full-time resident, if you need to get home quickly for medical care, Skymed is a great answer.
http://usembassy.state.gov/posts/mx2/wwwhmv.ml	US Consulate General American Citizen Services has all types of Visa information and contact information.
http://www.mexonline.com/	This site has tons of information about travel, shopping, city guides and more.
http://www.mexicoinsider.com/	Although you may have to pay a membership fee for this site, there is a lot of really good info that is updated on a regular basis. If you are new to Mexico, this is a wonderful site with tons of information.
http://portal.sre.gob.mx/sre/index.php?Itemid=1	This is another great government site that you should be familiar with.

http://www.caboinsurance.com/	Our most trusted insurance carrier for car, home, etc.
http://apps.cbp.gov/bwt/	Border wait times http://www.cbp.gov/ http://www.cbp.gov/xp/cgov/travel/trusted_traveler/goes/	US Customs and Border Protection Home site. Note the information for the Sentri pass in the right hand column http://help.cbp.gov/cgi-bin/customs.cfg/php/enduser/std_alp.php	US Customs Border protection has answers for everything from what food you can bring into the US to job openings with the CBP.
http://usembassy.state.gov/	Websites of U.S. embassies, consulates, and diplomatic missions
http://tijuana.usconsulate.gov/	The United States Consulate General in Tijuana.
http://rosaritoinfo.com/about.htm	A great site for information about what's going on in and around Rosarito http://www.weather.com/	Never leave home without knowing what the weather is going to be like http://www.timeanddate.com/worldclock/	Always know what time it is when you travel and where you will have time changes.
http://www.digitaldutch.com/unitconverter/	Convert power, length, energy, area, liquids and more http://www.traveltobaja.net/	Another fun Travel to Baja site worth reviewing http://www.mexadv.com/index.html	Mexico Advisor was invaluable to use when we first came to Mexico.
http://ensenada.com/index.html	Information on what's going on in Ensenada http://www.bajainsider.com/	This was one of the first groups we joined. They are highly recommended, reasonable and have a lot to offer http://www.aaro.org/index.php	AARO is a volunteer, non-partisan service organization representing the interests of more than 6.6 million U.S. citizens living and working abroad. Its mission is to ensure that Americans resident overseas are guaranteed the same rights and privileges as their counterparts in the U.S.
http://www.aarp.org/	The American Association of Retired People has much to offer when it comes to foreign travelers
http://www.sre.gob.mx/english/	The Ministry of Foreign Affairs website has a wealth of knowledge for foreigners.

<http://www.enjoyensenada.com/english/aboutensenada.jsp>

More information on visiting Ensenada

For more information, don't hesitate to call or email us. We have so much more information we are happy to share with you. We have developed the best contacts in the area to make sure you have a wonderful experience in Baja.

Your Baja Connection Team

Office: (619) 272-3316